

SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

FRENCH TACO CART

It's not often a server chooses to leave El Gaucho, even more rare is that the server is your brother and moves to France. This combo of El Jimador Blanco, fresh lime, equal splashes of St. Germain and Parfait Amour is shaken and served tall. This cocktail is as fearless as leaving a great gig and following your dreams.

So proud!

18

LIVE WIRE

PGE says, "don't touch". El Gaucho says, "touch it with your tongue and drink it!" Enjoy this combination of Absolut Mandrin, fresh grapefruit and a splash of Campari, shaken and served up with a powdered sugared rim. This is a live wire you'll want to touch again and again!

18

FIDDY-FIDDY

Simple math: 50% Aria gin plus 50% Dolin dry vermouth, perfectly chilled and served up with olive and a lemon twist, equal 110% deliciousness.

18

TRUE SAZERAC

The Phylloxera outbreak of the mid-1800's changed the Sazerac as we now know it. Back in the day it featured cognac. So, we step back in time to the early 1800's with this old-timey combo of Hennessy VSOP, Peychaud's Bitters, an Herbsaint wash, chilled and served neat with a lemon peel. A true classic revisited.

BREAKING NEWS

This. Just. In. G-Blend IX and a splash of Banane de Brésil with dashes of maraschino liqueur and walnut bitters will be served over ice. Sources say it will be placed in your hand by our humble staff for you to relax and enjoy. Now, that's some breaking news we can all stand behind.

20

THE CROOKED TIE

Whether you tie your own or sport a clip-on, it's gonna get crooked. This unique combination of G-Blend IX, Cynar, a splash of Cherry Heering, celery bitters is chilled and served up with a Kummel wash and lemon peel. It's an homage to all the hard-working, rule-following, necktie-wearing mortals. Crooked happens. Just don't let 'em see you sweat.

21

THE COLONEL

This unique Southern gentleman features G-Blend IX, a touch of sweet vermouth, a splash of Apricot Brandy, fresh orange and a dash of bitters. Lick your lips (not fingers) with "our" original recipe.

20

KAT NAP

A kat nap just may be the thing to get us through these rainy fall days. Try this combo of G-Blend IX, a splash of Ancho Reyes chili liqueur, a dash of Fee Bros. Aztec chocolate bitters and a touch of honey served over ice with an orange peel. Naps aren't just for kats and kindergartners anymore.

20

MATCHES

My 1st dog was named Matches. He was sweet, at times salty and loved camping. This cocktail is very similar to that ol' dog. High West Campfire complimenting our G-Blend IX, sweet vermouth, dashes of Regans' orange bitters and Fee Brothers Aztec chocolate bitters are chilled and served up with a salted cherry and cinnamon stick. My mom used to tell us, "Go outside and play with Matches." You would never, but in this case, you should!

Martin Woods

The woods and the winery are hidden in the oak-forested foothills of Oregon's Coast Range, within the cool-climate McMinnville AVA. Winemaker/vigneron Evan Martin is driven by a passion for discovering cool-climate vineyard sites in Oregon capable of producing wine with the classic qualities present in the great wines of France (i.e. heady aromas, textural complexity, elegance and power woven together in one seamless dance).

The goal is to produce highly pleasurable wines that complement cuisine and offer long-cellarling potential.

Since Evan launched Martin Woods in 2014, his vineyard relationships have grown, encompassing more than a dozen sites in the Willamette and Walla Walla Valleys. Production is headlined by Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, but Gamay, Riesling and many other varietals play strong supporting roles. Above all, Evan hopes that you find in his wines a lovely and distinct sense-of-place... authentic Oregon terroir.

William Marie Wines

William Marie Wines is a husband and wife collaboration founded in 2015 by Edward William and Monique Marie Lefferts. Ed and Mo met in 2008 while working in a restaurant in Scottsdale, Arizona.

Years in restaurant work led to a passion for food and wine, which began thoughts of turning this passion into a livelihood. It was a gamble, but the two found the courage to move to Oregon in 2010 to chase this crazy dream of beginning a small winery.

In 2014, Ed and Mo were able to source a half-ton of Syrah grapes from Walla Walla, Washington and experimented with a barrel of wine in their garage... that was the beginning of William Marie Wines. In 2015, they became a licensed winery and began making wine under a "custom crush" contract in Dundee, Oregon. What started out with 5 barrels of Cabernet Sauvignon has slowly grown to producing Pinot Gris, Rosé, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Cab Franc, Syrah, and much more Cabernet.

William Marie Wines aims to make balanced, easy-drinking wines, that pair best with friends and family at the dinner table. Sources of fruit come from quality vineyards in the Pacific Northwest, while the winemaking is all done right in SE Portland.

Please relax and revel with WMW in your glass, and know that your support is keeping this dream alive!
